

SPECIAL SESSIONS

CALL FOR PAPERS

6th International Symposium on Materials, Electrochemistry and Environment (CIMEE 2024)

Call for papers CIMEE24, Special sessions

Subject: Warm invitation to publish for Special Issue in partner journals

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

We really hope to find you in very good health and spirit.

Academicians/researchers, you're invited to share your experiences and submit your manuscript to the Special Issue "Sustainable technologies: the promising role in combating the effects of climate change & environmental degradation"

- S1. Green Technologies Innovations & Monitoring Techniques for Soil Remediation
- S2. Environmental toxicology of marine microplastic pollution: innovative Removal technologies and future solutions
- S3. Advanced materials for Energy Decarbonization and environmental Sustainability
- S4. Co-pyrolysis technology of biomass and waste for bioenergy & hydrogen production: challenges, and opportunities

We sincerely hope this invitation will receive your favorable consideration. You are also welcome, along with your colleagues and interested researchers.

This Special Issue focuses on recent developments and trends in the Climate change problem and presents a technological solution for water, soil and air pollution and mitigating GHG emissions, natural resources depletion as well as improve sustainability in agriculture sector, remote-sensing technology, imaging sensors, use of biomass to reduce of the concentration of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere by CCS technology, with a preferable focus on, renewable energy, Environmental Monitoring and environment-oriented applications, such as water/air remediation and biomass valorization, related to the Special Issue goals are also encouraged.

The manuscript could be submitted via the following link: <https://cimee-science.org/index.php/cimee24/>

The submission deadline is 31 December 2024. There are no submission fees to a special issue, publication fees, or page charges for the partner journals.

Thanks for your time and consideration.

Best regards,
